- This form was provided as a convenience and may NOT cover all issues.
- This agreement may have tax consequences and that seeking tax advice is suggested.
- We have fully disclosed each of our income, debts, assets and liabilities to each other.
- Maintenance is deductible by the payer and taxable to the payee.
- Any court order regarding the division of property is final as of the date of the final hearing and can never be changed.
- There are certain legal presumptions under Wisconsin law, such as marital property should be divided 50/50.

K. VOLUNTARY EXECUTION / NATURE OF AGREEMENT

We assume equal responsibility for the entire content of this agreement. We have entered into this marital settlement agreement freely and voluntarily and not because of any undue influence. In some instances, the agreement represents a compromise of disputed issues. We believe the terms to be fair and reasonable under the circumstances.

We acknowledge that there may be substantial legal and tax implications with regard to this agreement. We understand that lack of knowledge of the law may not be sufficient to convince the court that relief from these provisions is required. We acknowledge that each of us has the right to seek the advice of our own personal attorney.

L. MUTUAL / GENERAL RELEASE

We release each other from any claim of any nature that may exist. Neither of us may, at any time hereafter, sue the other, or our heirs, personal representatives, and assigns, for the purpose of enforcing any or all of the rights relinquished and/or waived under this agreement. We understand that this mutual and general release shall not become effective until this Marital Settlement Agreement is approved by the court.

M. FULL DISCLOSURE AND RELIANCE

We warrant to each other that there has been an accurate, complete, and current disclosure of all income, assets, debts, and liabilities. We understand and agree that deliberate failure to provide complete disclosure constitutes perjury under sec. 767.27 Wis. Stats. and a fraud upon the court. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property in which either party has any interest. This agreement is based on our financial disclosure statements. We relied on these financial representations when entering into this agreement.

N. RESTRAINING ORDER

We agree to never interfere with the personal liberty of the other, or to go on the premises occupied by the other as a residence except with permission of that party.

All property awarded to a party shall be the separate property of that party.
